Betreff: defragmented exhibition & 'scribble to draw' update

Hello!

Thank you to all the scriblers who have joined the scribble to draw project so far and to all those who came along to the preview. The project is still running, lots of work is still to be done and many more scribbles still needed. I've worked 250cm of the 500cm scroll so far. Your (& the full) documentation will be put together after I reach the 'finishing line'.

Below you'll find a selection of photos of the piece (PDF) as well as a couple from the project preview at Debut contemporary on Sat 9th Nov before the doors opened.

Meanwhile I am showing some paintings in 5th base, off Brick Lane, together with 6 other visual artists. I hope you can join us there!

All the best
Jess
